LOCAL BANK BUYS CITY BONDS

Old National to Finance Street Lighting Project
MAIRE PROMISES MAYOR

Purchase Refused by Cincinnati Firm on Technicality

Stepping into the breach for the embattled city government, the Old National Bank Tuesday agreed to purchase $38,400 worth of 5 1/2 per cent street lighting bonds which were turned down by Seansgood & Mayer of Cincinnati, whose attorneys refused to approve the transcript.

Frank Maire, in consultation with Mayor Harold Cunningham, promised that the bank would take the bonds. The maturity date is March 1, 1924, when the bonds will be paid off with assessments collected from abutting property owners.

Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, Cleveland bond attorneys, notified Seansgood & Mayer who had purchased the bonds on condition that the transcript should be approved, that the maturity date is illegal.

Seansgood & Mayer rejected the securities. The Griswold act provides that bonds may not mature earlier than the date fixed by law for the final tax settlement next following the inclusion of a tax for such issue in the annual budget. This date is August 10, 1924. The bonds as issued by the city set March 1, 1924, as the maturity date.

To PAY FOR LIGHTS
The two issues were authorized to pay $28,200 for street lights and $10,200 for boulevard lights.

Adverse opinion was also given by Squire, Sanders & Dempsey on an issue of $8,300 worth of refunding bonds on Ewing-av No. 3 paving.

The bond forms are not in proper shape because they do not designate the streets or portions thereof in which the bonds are to be used, the latter declares.

Two other minor questions were raised concerning the issue, but these have been settled satisfactorily.

Seansgood & Mayer have indicated that they will accept the bonds when corrections are made in the issue.

CHRISTIANS FLEE TURKISH CITY

Strained Relations With France Causes Exodus

CONSTANTINOPLE. (United Press.)—Christians are fleeing from Alexandria owing to strained relations between France and Turkey, according to the official Anatolian News Agency.

A five hundred Armenian families already have departed from the city. An outbreak is feared as a result of recent disturbances, arising over the Chester concession against which the French have protested to Turkey.

A band of Armenians from Syria attacked a Turkish village called Agzhobzokale, in the Adana district, according to news agency. Turkish detachments rushed up and destroyed the attackers, the report stated.

The Turks at Angora are in a mood of restrained belligerency as the time for resumption of the Lausanne conference draws near. Jamet Pasha is here today for a conference with the allies on the subject of the Chester agreement before going to Lausanne.

CHICAGO BOYS HELD HERE CHARGED WITH AUTO THEFT
Two school boys giving Chicago as their home were turned over to Frank Chapman, probation officer, by police Wednesday after they admitted they stole an automobile from South Bend, Ind.

Police took them to headquarters and after questioning, they admitted the car was stolen, looking for adventure, the boys said, and did not think they would have any trouble getting away with the car.

Famous Indian Warrior Crushed in Elevator Shaft
SAVED LIVES OF MANY
Defended Whites in Battle Against Red Men

OMAHA, Neb. (Associated Press.)—Fighting, snoring, grunting and shouting were heard as Fred M. Hans, Indian fighter, brother scout and possibly last of the real "two gun cross arm draw" experts met death here last night with his "boots on the ground" in a battle with a bullet. He was crushed to death in an elevator shaft at the Omaha World Herald plant where he was night watchman.

Lone Star was caught by the elevator when he attempted to move the control lever from the outside and the lift suddenly shot upward.

Lone Star began his career as plainsman at the age of 16, when he left home to search for a brother kidnapped by Sioux Indians. He broke into fame first in 1876 in the "Hole in the Wall" country, Powder River, Wyoming, when single-handed he shot and killed "Blackhawk," his and his two fellow bandits. It was Lone Star's hammer fanning that won the unequal fight.

The Indians called him "We-Cha-Pe-Wan-Go-La," which means Lone Star.

PROMINENT EVENTS
Other high spots of Hans' life were:

Shot and killed two stage coach bandits April 12, 1877, near Valentine, Neb. Shot five Indians in battle of Little Missouri near Black Hills, August 21, 1877, saving the lives of a party of twenty prospectors. Killed eleven Indians with 12 shots, using both guns, hammer fanning, in the battle of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, in 1892. Killed bandit Alnoworth, Nebraska in 1878. Shot and killed bandit at Fremont, Neb., in 1897.

Was official war department investigator of Custer massacre and followed Sitting Bull off hundred miles on horseback, inducing him and his band to return to the reservation.

Was present at Sitting Bull's death; was chief scoutmaster for General Phil Sheridan for six years; was chief special agent of the Northwestern railroad for years. In all Hans was credited with having killed eight white and twenty Indians.

"I was never beaten on the draw," he often declared.

Until a month ago Hans wore a scalp lock 18 inches long which he kept curled under a skull cap as he sat around in the Herald editorial rooms at night, when displaying his skill with his two guns to reporters and visitors.

"No one is after it now," he explained when he ordered his lock cut off.

GAS TAX VETOED
LANSING, Mich.—A bill recently passed by the state legislature imposing a tax of two cents a gallon on all gasoline sold within the state was vetoed by Governor Alex J. Groves today. Auto Crashes Into Street Car at Cincinnati

ONE SERIOUSLY INJURED

Doctor, Business Man, Woman Dies in Accident

CINCINNATI, O. (Associated Press.)—Two men and a woman were killed and another woman was seriously injured when an automobile in which they were riding collided head-on with a street car on Price Hill, this city, early today.

The dead: Roland A. Moyer, 36, secretary treasurer of the H. H. Mayer Packing Company of this city; Dr. William Kratz, 28, son of Dr. W. J. Kratz, Norwood, Ohio; Mrs. William Bender, 26, formerly of Dayton.

Injured: Miss Margaret Nebbergall, 23, Charlestown, W. Va., scalp lacerations and concussion of the brain.

THROWN THROUGH WINDSHIELD
According to the report received by the police, the accident occurred when the driver of the car, attempted to turn the street corner from the wrong side of the street. It crashed into the street car with terrific force and the occupants were thrown through the windshield. The automobile was wrecked.

There were no passengers on the street car. It was in charge of Motorman Matt G. Martin and Conductor Condon W. Schuller. They said the automobile was traveling at high speed when it suddenly turned the corner of the street and crashed into the street car.

Miss Nebbergall, told hospital attendants that the party had been at the Price Hill House, where she believed the automobile was being driven 45 or 50 miles an hour when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Florence Hawley, a sister of Miss Nebbergall, said that Miss Nebbergall recently came to Cincinnati from Charleston, W. Va., to visit Mrs. Bender here. She said she understood that Mrs. Bender was separated from her husband, William Bender, and that Bender recently had requested Cincinnati police in a message from Cleveland, Ohio, to locate his wife.

A sister of Mrs. Bender, Mrs. Raymond Unger, is said to live at 316 Lexington-av, Dayton.

RAILWAY DATA IS DEMANDED

Roads Must Answer Questionnaire Sent by Commission

WASHINGTON. (Associated Press.)—As part of its inquiry into efficiency and economy of railroad management, the Interstate Commerce commission today ordered the 51 largest railroads to furnish under oath responses to a questionnaire covering labor conditions in their maintenance departments and the general situation in regard to fitness of their equipment. The companies were given until May 26 to reply.

Each railroad was asked for data as to how the strike of shopmen had affected it, and whether any equipment had been made with the provision of a body. Where no agreement had been formally reached the roads were required to state what the striking employees demanded before returning to work. They also were asked for information on the expense made in the fighting the strike such as in providing lodging for guards and strikebreakers; and to give by months from July 1, 1921 to March 31, 1922, the total number of train and engine employees in their service.

Other sections of the questionnaire were designed to cover the amount of traffic handled, the number of locomotives and railroad cars in use and the records of their service ability, according to locomotive and car breakdowns.

GARAGEMAN HELD IN THEFTS

Spencerville Man Charged With Conducting "Fence"

ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA

Cache of Auto Tires Found in Mercer-co Field

Jesse Davies, 39, Spencerville, garage man, was taken in custody at his home by officers directed by Sheriff Harvey H. Grosson, Tuesday night, on a charge of receiving stolen property.

Officers from the National Detective bureau, Columbus, who have been working under cover in Allen-co for two weeks past, charge Davies with conducting a "fence" for a band of automobile and accessory thieves who have operated in Northwestern Ohio for several years.

Operations of the gang are said to include a number of thefts in Indiana, as well as Ohio.

Arrest of Davies was quickly effected with aid of Ernest Henne, village marshal, who has been co-operating with detectives and the sheriff's office in obtaining evidence.

Officers swooped down on Spencerville after they had learned that a large cache of alleged stolen auto tires had been unearthed in a field in Mercer-co.

Davies was rushed to Lima in a limousine and arraigned at a late night session before Justice of the Peace Ernest M. Botkin.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY
Davies pleaded not guilty and was released on $500 bond. Sheriff Grosson declined to disclose all of the circumstances which were the net of suspicion about the Spencerville garage owner.

Authorities are seeking to establish a connection between Davies and Floyd Murford, 21, of Eight, in a running fight in Spencerville streets by Marshal Henne.

Murford had driven into town in a high-powered touring-car, carrying two different license tags. The plates are said to have been stolen at St. Marys.

Murford was arrested in a pool hall in the street he started fighting and slid out of his coat, leaving the village marshal holding the garment.

After a lively chase, Murford was recaptured by W. W. Ryder, village postmaster. He was turned over to St. Marys officers. The car in which he rode into town was held at the Davies garage. Authorities are of the opinion that the machine is a recently reported stolen in an Indiana city.

Murford is a former Mansfield reformatory inmate, being committed to that institution, detectives say, on a larceny charge several years ago.

SEEN AS BURDEN BY DONAHEY

Measure Lacking of Protective Security, Governor Says

"INACTMENT INADVISABLE"

Disapproval Expected to be Overridden by Assembly

COLUMBUS. (Associated Press.)—Governor Donahey today vetoed the Taft taxation bill, one of the three measures which comprised the legislature's compromise taxation program worked out by agreement between the "uniform rule" group and those of other taxation beliefs.

The bill, the governor declared, would result in "an enormous increase in the burdens of taxation upon all taxable property of the state, without the protective security afforded by the present law of a veto by the people."

The effect of the bill, according to Mr. Donahey, would be to "automatically increase tax rates in every city and village in Ohio. It would operate admirably, therefore, in the interests of the tax spenders and emphatically against the larger, more important interests of the taxpayers, whose wishes are not being consulted."

He also charged that the measure, drafted by Representative Robert A. Taft, Republican, of Cincinnati, and which would increase levy limitations in municipalities from 15 to 16 mills and reduce them in rural districts from 15 to 14 mills and generally reduce the state's taxation code, had numerous other shortcomings which would result in harm rather than benefit to the people.

Action on the Robinson and Albee measures, which would impose penalties for failure to list property or for erroneous returns and make the county instead of the township the assessment district, is expected later today. The ten day period after which the bills would automatically become laws, expires tonight.

BACK TO OLD STATUS
The governor's action in disapproving the Taft measures, considered as the central feature of the taxation program, was regarded as having thrown the taxation situation back into the same status as before the legislature convened. The three measures as well as a number of others now before the governor, were intended in their effects, legislative leaders said, to depend to a large extent upon the voters.

If predictions of Republicans are fulfilled, efforts will be made when the legislature returns April 27, to pass the Taft bill as well as other tax measures which may be disapproved, over the veto of the chief executive. Confidence is expressed that sufficient votes could be mustered to bring this about.

In voting the bill the governor said that while it had meritorious features, "the principal objects sought to be attained by its enactment were to my mind wholly inadvisable."

Pointing out that the present law provides for all districts a limitation of 10 mills without a vote of the people for operating expenses and fifteen for all purposes including certain sinking fund levies, the governor pointed out that the bill increases the limit to 17 mills in cities and reduces to fourteen in rural districts and places without the limit, all bonds issued hereafter. This, he said, would permit the expansion of operating levies from 10 to 14 or 17 mills, since bond issues are placed outside.

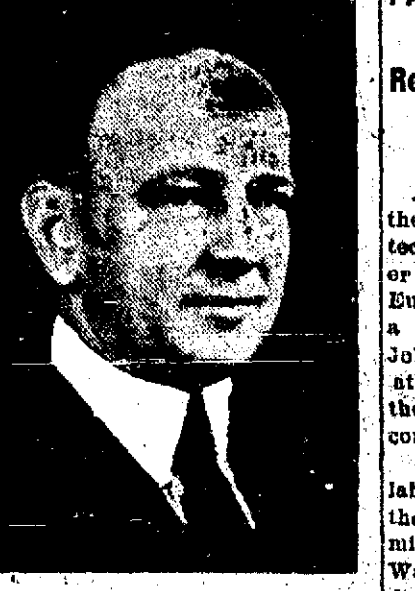

INCREASE IN DEBT
"Clutching of bond issues outside municipalities," Mr. Donahey said, would encourage an increase in bonded indebtedness, since such issues would not encroach upon levies for current expenses as at present. He is "emphatically of the opinion," he said, that additional taxes should not be imposed without explicit authorization of the people.

The bill, the veto message said, does away with the present uniform limitations for all taxing districts and sets divergent limits for rural and city districts, not taking into consideration that many school districts contain territory both within and without municipalities. "Since the constitution requires uniformity of levies throughout an entire taxing district, the necessity of continuing the aggregate levy to the rate provided for territory outside of municipalities may frequently result in reducing the school levy throughout the entire district below the amount which would be allowable in the municipality and below the actual necessity of the schools," the message continued.

EQUALITY VIOLATED
Methods of arriving at the tax rates, the chief executive declared, "violate every principle of equality which is at the very root of any just system of taxation." The bill, he said, did away with the present theory that the actual duplicate was to be the basis of calculating the tax rate and fixed an "arbitrary and fictitious duplicate" upon which the rate is to be based in counties where it is not.

Members of the committee besides John are Mark Evans, supervisor of music in the public schools, J. W. Green, Gibson Diddle, and Jesse Ernberger.

OPPOSES EXCESS IMMIGRATION

Congressman John L. Cable, of the Fourth Ohio district, Wednesday attacked the assertion by E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation that a serious labor shortage is threatened thru restrictive immigration laws.

Cable declares that American prosperity will be prolonged by protective immigration and that there is danger of financial panic following a flood of immigrants coming to the United States.

LIMA HEIRS JOIN FIGHT FOR LAND

Recovery of Half Billion Delaware Estate Sought

Heirs of Charles Christopher Springer, claiming lands and property in and near Wilmington, Delaware, said to be worth half a billion dollars, will move April 26 and 27 in Dayton to plan means of recovering title. Mrs. C. M. Chown, 413 S. Baxter-st., vice-president of the heirs' organization in Ohio, announced Wednesday.

Henry Springer, 830 E. North-st., is also a heir.

More than 200 Springer heirs are in Ohio at the present time, according to Mrs. Chown, this state furnishing more claimants to the property than any other. A large number of these are in Cincinnati, Mrs. Chown said.

The land in Delaware, which is said to comprise nearly 600 acres, was leased by Charles Christopher Springer for 99 years, with the provision that title be returned to his heirs. The lessees neglected to do this, according to Mrs. Chown.

A stiff legal battle will be planned at Dayton, it is said, where financial arrangement will be made.

KILLINGS PROBED

Louisiana Grand Jury Investigates Rum Battle

NEW ORLEANS. (Associated Press.)—A grand jury was called in special session today to investigate the killing yesterday of Joseph Etouphail and August Etouphail, deputy sheriffs of that parish by rum runners at the Lake Borgne canal bridge, near Violet, La.

The two deputies were shot and killed after they halted a truck loaded with liquor at the approach to the bridge, occupants of an automobile closely following the truck, opening fire.

A dozen men are being held. Officers questioned, various persons brought before them yesterday and last night it was said that evidence against a large number of persons, some of them prominent, probably would be placed before the grand jury.

The officers declined to disclose the information obtained but said they had learned the identity of the slayers.

IMMIGRANT LAW IS DEFENDED

Lima Man Says Head of Steel Board Wants Cheap Labor

PANIC DANGER POINTED OUT

Restriction Means Prosperity, Congressman Declares

Asserting that "the prosperity of the nation will be prolonged by protective immigration" and that "after each flood of immigrants from Europe to this country there comes a financial panic," Congressman John L. Cable, Wednesday sharply attacked E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation.

Gary had declared that a serious labor shortage was threatened thru the operations of the restrictive immigration law. Dispatches from Washington quote President Harding as agreeing that Gary is correct in his statement made to the stockholders of the steel corporation that restriction on immigration is responsible for a threatened labor shortage. Secretary Davis adds that a labor shortage already exists, particularly in the steel industry, where skilled labor is required.

AGREES WITH JOHNSON
Congressman Cable backs up Chairman Johnson of the house immigration committee in a defense of restrictive immigration, asserting that large corporations attacking it want cheaper labor.

"Gary, in voicing his opposition to restrictive immigration," Congressman Cable declared, "has overlooked the direct effects of unrestricted immigration as well as the provisions of the present three per cent law," he adds.

Cable holds that the contention that prosperity cannot continue unless a large number of additional immigrants come to this country, is not sustained by history or facts. "In the first place," he says, "the first place in the world for the last six months are permitted, under the three per cent law, to return. From actual investigation at Ellis Island by the Public Health service, only 75 per cent of the men between 18 and 40 arriving here are manual workers."

EXACT AS UNITE
"To permit these immigrants to come here without their wives and families causes social unrest. The family should be considered as a unit in dealing with new immigration for the protection of the people of America," Cable added.

Gary and his associates with large numbers of unskilled labor immigrants to come here the Lima man said, forgetting the financial panic that follows each flood of immigrants. Cable declares this is borne out by history.

"The contention that prosperity depends upon alien labor is refuted by a study of the history of periods of depression and prosperity as compared to heavy and light immigration," in the opinion of Cable. "This examination will disclose that a period of heavy immigration will promptly result in a depression and financial panic. When the panic starts, immigrants leave the United States by the hundreds of thousands and remain in Europe until prosperity is again at its peak, when they seek to return to partake of that prosperity."

CREATES PANICS
Over-production, because of cheap foreign labor, inability to consume, capital tied up, money tight and—the panic, is pointed out by the Fourth district legislator. Heavy immigration in 1882, in 1907, in 1913 and in 1914 each resulted in a panic, Cable recalls.

He is convinced, he says, that to permit this country to be flooded by cheap foreign labor would soon produce another panic, causing misery and suffering and prosperity and the return to Europe of their money saved by reason of their lower standard of living.

There is grave danger in unrestricted immigration, Cable points out emphatically.

NOT GUILTY IS PLEA OF MRS. BESSIE MULLEN TO CHARGE OF SHOPLIFTING

Mrs. Bessie Mullen, 5, Main-st., indicted on twin charges of grand and petty larceny by the Allen-co grand jury recently, was arraigned before Judge Fred C. Becker in common Pleas court Wednesday.

She was present in court, but had nothing to say. Counsel waived the reading of both indictments and entered plea of not guilty.

Judge Becker held the accused woman under a total bond of $500 on the two charges.

Mrs. Mullen was arrested by police on charges of theft and shoplifting preferred by Charles Gordon. She was held to the grand jury by Judge Ernest J. Jackson, of criminal court.

WILSON TO LEAD FIGHT ON COURT PLAN

MAY PUT HARDING IN HOLE

Unconditional U. S. Entry in World Body Demanded

REFUSAL MEANS DEFEAT

Ex-President Assumes Direction of Democratic Strategy

WASHINGTON —(United Press)—Woodrow Wilson has assumed active direction of Democratic strategy in the fight on the Harding world court proposal.

Wilson, in conference with Senator Carter Glass and others, has mapped a program, which, if carried out, will put Harding in a predicament like that which Wilson faced in the league of nations fight in the senate.

The Wilsonian plan is to force Harding to choose between:

1.—Unconditional American admission to the world court or the league of nations.

2.—Defeat of his entire plan for American participation in the court.

3.—Unconditional American admission to the world court or the league of nations.

The fight will center on the Harding-Hughes reservations to the court protocol. Hughes submitted and Harding approved these reservations as protecting American rights and traditions, and has asked the senate to ratify the protocol with the reservations.

As Wilson stated in his letter to Representative Hiram Bingham of Kentucky, he is opposed to membership on such restrictions. But his strategy goes further than that question. If it is supported by Democratic senators, it will eventually force to the front again a clear cut issue of American membership in the league of nations as against the various other piecemeal plans for American participation in international efforts to prevent war, Wilson believes.

GLOOM AGAIN; FROST TONIGHT

Joining with a well developed measure of frost in the cleanup painting campaign locally, Ted is doing his part to make Lima shine as a greeting to spring. All over the city the improvement bug is working overtime and the results obtained are very satisfactory.

Altho proper temperature conditions for the season are tardy, it makes little difference. Outside work is going ahead steadily. So long as the sun shines, a body worries about a little thing like frost at night.

Unseasonable conditions are holding back development of fruit trees buds and flowers and there is prospect of a late crop this year.

However, there is an old saying that a late spring means a late fall, so the fruit and other growing things will probably have their chance after all.

Frost is predicted again for tonight. Officially, the weatherman says: Fair and continued cool tonight, with slight to heavy frost. Thursday fair, with rising temperature.

Weather experts everywhere take with a grain of salt the suggestion that 1923 may be a summerless year. They predict that when it's once well started, it will be a hot summer.

"REVOLVING TRUST FUND" SOON TO BE AUTHORIZED

Establishment of "revolving trust funds" to provide for repairs of street lighting standards and water meters will be accomplished by passage of an ordinance Monday evening declaring the amounts accumulated under ordinance No. 1530 "to be appropriations" to the various funds.

Question was raised as to the legality of the method taken by the city commission to establish the funds and former auditor Even O. Sellers refused to act.

An ordinance was passed Monday evening "crediting the funds accumulated under ordinance No. 1530" to their proper department balances.

The "trust funds" are provided to cover cases where damage is caused by citizens and repairs were made immediately. Money to pay the cost of repairs was taken from the "trust fund" and when collection was made from the citizen it was turned back into the fund.

DECISION IN INCREASED AWARD FOR WIDOW UNDER ADVISEMENT BY COURT

Decision in an action instituted by Mrs. Bertha Rhoda, wife of the late William Rhoda, of 638 N. Elizabeth-st., against Charles Rhoda, administrator, to obtain an increased award, was taken under advisement by Judge Fred C. Becker in common pleas court Wednesday.

Counsel for Mrs. Rhoda represented to the court that thru error made by the appraisers in listing the personal property due the widow by right, as part of her first year's allowance, she received only $156. The amount the appraisers intended to award was agreed to have been $1,000.

Children of William Rhoda by a former marriage resisted the action brought by their step-mother. Testimony given by them was calculated to show that their father spent some $900 annually for living expenses.

LID CLAMPED ON VICE DENS

Crusade Launched in Chicago by New Police Chief

CHICAGO —(United Press)—A crusade against vice, bootlegging and graft in Chicago, was ordered today by Morgan A. Collins, who yesterday succeeded Charles C. Fitzmorris as chief of police.

Scores of vice dens, saloons and gambling houses were reported to have been closed overnight in anticipation of the order.

Collins issued his sweeping edict in a conference with district captains. He declared that policemen were participating in bootlegging rings and were accepting graft. He declared that officers of the law who fail to suppress commercialized vice, gambling and bootlegging, will be dismissed from the department.

DIRECTORY MADE UP

As the police captains returned to their posts, "intelligence squads" left the stations to make up a new "directory" of places where law violations are known to exist.

The lid was clamped on tight in the "black belt" with its notorious "black and tan" cabarets, heretofore almost immune from vice crusades, because of political influence, it was claimed.

The chief served notice on all policemen and police officials that hereafter that they will be responsible to no "political influence" and will report only to him.

The anti-bank order included all card rooms, dice rooms and book making schemes, police said.

BLOOM AMENDMENT DRAWS FIRE OF VOTER LEAGUE; WOMEN HEAR C. A. BINGHAM

The League of Women Voters took action against the Bloom amendment to the Bing law, Tuesday at a meeting in the Public Library, by sending to Governor Denney a protest against signing the bill.

The Bloom amendment which is now awaiting executive approval, in the opinion of Mrs. Gibson Dildine, president of the League, weakens the child labor and school attendance provisions law to such an extent that its approval will retard progress in these lines at least ten years.

The amendment also nullifies important provisions of the child labor law and is being fought by civic organizations over the entire state, it is pointed out.

Mrs. Gibson Dildine and Mrs. A. E. Gale were appointed delegates to the meeting of the Ohio State League of Women Voters to be held in Columbus May 16 and 17.

Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson was chosen to represent the League on the Central committee on Americanization, a committee composed of representatives from local civic clubs dealing with Americanization problems.

About 40 members of the club heard C. A. Bingham, city manager, discuss municipal government. Bingham congratulated members of the club on the increasing capability of women for jury service as indicated by results the past week in local courts.

Do You Have Catarrh?

Almost All Blood Diseases Yield to This Treatment as Told by Mrs. Shatalroe

Alliance, Ohio.—"I take pleasure in stating that I have used five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, one bottle of the 'Favorite Prescription' and a vial of 'Pleasant Pellets' and I am wonderfully improved. I suffered forty years from catarrh. Two years ago I had the 'flu' and suffered from bad head noises and my hearing was impaired. Last September I was so weak I could scarcely walk, four blocks away from home, but after giving the 'Discovery' a fair trial and I am now able to sleep without suffering indigestion, and can hear the clock tick. I am twenty per cent better than I have been for five years."—Mrs. Isabelle Shatalroe.

INCREASED WAGES TO BE ASKED

2,000,000 Rail Workers Will Demand More Money

FOLLOW GENERAL TREND

Better Financial Conditions Argument Used

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Railroad workers of the country believe they are next in line for pay increases.

Representatives of more than 2,000,000 railroad employees are preparing to go before the United States railroad labor board and demand wage boosts to the 1921 peak.

Recent heavy increases in railroad business have placed the companies in a financial position to meet an advance in pay, union leaders contend.

The railroad workers believe recent increases to employees in the steel, packing and building trades industries, as well as the general labor shortage, will force the management to agree to their demands.

Some of the railroads were reported considering negotiations with company unions set up following the shepherds' strike last summer and arranging increases, thus forestalling an appeal to the labor board.

INDIANS WIN VICTORY IN FIGHT FOR LAND

WASHINGTON — The government capitulated today to the rebellious Ute and Plute Indians of Utah. An order issued by Secretary of the Interior Work directs that the Indians who recently rose against the whites, should be given a special allotment of land outside the regular Indian reservation.

Refusal of the Indians to live on the reservation, and their demand that they be given the lands on which they had always lived, led to the uprising headed by "Old Posey" in which one Indian was killed.

GIRL IS ATTACKED

Throat Slashed in Buffalo Hotel — Ohioan Held

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y. — (United Press) — The condition of Eva Powell, 32, chorus girl, of Columbus, Ohio, who is in a hospital here with a cut across her throat, received yesterday during a quarrel in a hotel room, was said to be improved today.

John Limes, 58, Dayton, Ohio, who is alleged to have done the cutting, is being held by the police pending the outcome of Miss Powell's injuries.

MRS. FLYNN FUNERAL — Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Flynn, 328 E. Second-st., will be held Friday at 8:30 a. m. at St. John's church. Interment in Gethsemane.

MEETING IS PLANNED

Plans now under consideration by Erie officials in charge of the agricultural demonstration car provide for a meeting at the Board of Commerce auditorium the evening of April 25, rather than at the lecture car on the Erie tracks.

CAR THEFT REPORTED

Local police Wednesday were notified by Mansfield officials that a sedan car had been stolen from that city Tuesday.

OTTAWA NEWS

12 ALIENS SEEK CITIZENSHIP

Nine to be Heard in July in Court at Ottawa

Twelve persons in Putnam-co of foreign birth seek admission to United States citizenship, records at the office of County Clerk E. H. Hanefeld disclose.

Nine applications will be heard in July before Common Pleas Judge Eastman, with a naturalization bureau attaché from Cleveland examining them. Declaration of intention have been filed by the other three.

Applications cover a period from 1917 until last Monday. Hearings in five cases have been continued from previous years.

Those so far scheduled to be given final hearing in July are: Charles G. Fischer, Continental, a native of Germany; Thaddeus Moroz, Columbus Grove, born in Hungary; Demetri Koval, Leipzig, born in Hungary; William Ulrich, Ottoville, Austria; Joseph Balogh, Ft. Jennings, Hungary; Florence May Anderson, Continental, Ohio; Sebastian Schieber, Miller City, Germany; Angelique Philippi, Kalida, Germany; Fred Shama, Leipzig, Syria.

Those who filed their first papers are Sisters M. Conrad-Schneider and M. Sarah-Oliger, Ottoville, natives of Germany, and Irma Van den Bergh, Ottawa, born in Belgium. Changes in form of government of European countries adds to the many details connected with naturalization work, Hanefeld says. Co-plaint correspondence with the naturalization bureau at Washington is necessary to obtain correct information, he says.

IMPORTANT MEETINGS OF PUTNAM-CO FARM BUREAU

Three important meetings are on the farm bureau calendar in Putnam-co for next week. April 24 the regular meeting of the Union-L farm bureau will be held at the township house in Kalida. Wednesday, April 25, the people of South Perry will hold a farm community meeting, at Cloverdale. Food club leaders of the county will meet April 27 with Mrs. Gladys Chambers. This date was changed from April 19.

Club work, better fires, chackering and other timely subjects will be discussed at the Cloverdale meeting Wednesday evening.

FAREWELL PLANNED FOR MINISTER AT OTTAWA

Presbyterians of the Ottawa congregation plan a farewell for Rev. W. A. Sears, who leaves Saturday to assume charge of his new pastorate at Creston.

Owing to the fact, however, that Rev. Sears' wife and daughter will remain in Ottawa until the latter graduates May 24 from Ottawa high school, the reception probably will not take place until the latter part of May or the forepart of June, it is explained by congregational leaders.

COUNTY AGENT URGES SEED CORN INSPECTION

Careful inspection of seed corn will eliminate many of the dangers of corn root rot, says J. W. Henceroth, Putnam-co farm agent. In his weekly news letter to farm members in the county he says:

"If good corn is to be harvested next fall, good seed must be planted this spring. There is quite a lot of corn root rot in Putnam-co corn. Much of this can be eliminated by carefully selecting the seed. "In selecting seed corn, look for the following symptoms and discard all ears having them—Pant white or grayish molds on the kernels, most easily detected when seed corn is shelled, as it should be, by hand. Immaturity of the ear, as evidenced by looseness of grains. Discolored or shredded shanks, marking the path by which rot enters from the plant into the ear. Discolored germ, seen upon splitting the kernel with a knife.

PUTNAM-CO LEADS IN LIVESTOCK SHIPPING

Putnam-co has lead the state during the last four months in shipments of livestock thru the cooperative association, according to information contained in County Farm Agent Henceroth's weekly bulletin. There have been shipped from the county 286 cars of livestock during that period.

Leipsic led the 12 local associations of the county with 53 cars, followed by Kalida with 49, Ottawa 40, Vaughnsville 39, Columbus Grove 37, Miller City, Ft. Jennings 23, Pandora 15, Mantua 11, Townsboro and Continental each seven.

STOCK FEEDERS URGED TO ATTEND WOOSTER MEET

Farmers wishing to go to Wooster for the Ohio Swine and Cattle Feeders' gatherings May 3 and 4 at the experiment station, should reserve rooms, according to advice from Putnam-co farm bureau headquarters.

It is urged that feeders attend. Cattle and hogs on feed will be studied and actual practical results shown.

WILL VISIT DELPHOS

Between six and ten Kiwanians from Ottawa will attend the special Kiwanis meeting Wednesday evening at St. John's auditorium, Delphos, in connection with a community fair given for the benefit of the new Delphos city park.

MANAGER EMPLOYED

The Cloverdale and Mantua local shipping associations have consolidated and employed John Fischer as the manager of the combined organization. The membership is now 200. Shipments will be made from either Mantua or Cloverdale.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER HALTS BASEBALL OPENER: STRONG TEAM IS PLANNED

Opening of the baseball season in Ottawa will be later than in surrounding cities and towns, but when the county seat team finally gets into action it will be with a lineup even better than the one of last season, Manager Charles Conkle states.

Like the club of '22, this season's team will probably be composed almost exclusively of outside talent. An entire new infield part of the outfield and the catcher's position will be occupied by new players.

It will be a difficult task securing an infield equal in ability to the Sobb-Heins-Leis-Sanquist combination of last year, fans agree, but they are assured there is sufficient first class talent available with which to form a strong club.

"Dutch" Schultz, Toledo pitcher, who lost only two games last season—both of them to Lima—will probably occupy the mound. Schultz is declared eager to sign again with the Ottawa club.

Chilly weather has halted the usual spring activity on the diamond. The usual workouts have not been held on the Ottawa diamond, but after warm weather sets in and a line of players is secured, baseball will be whopped up in Ottawa again preceding years, it is indicated.

ILLEGALLY SOLD SEED TRACED IN PUTNAM-CO

A representative of the seed inspection department of the state department of agriculture is in Putnam-co, tracing clover seed supposed to have been sold illegally, Cothran says.

There is a state law regarding the selling of seed with which it is easy to comply, he explains. A copy may be seen at the county agent's office.

One important section of the law says, "If, however, seed is advertised for sale thru the medium of the public press or by circular letters for delivery thru a common carrier, said producer shall be considered a vendor and said seed must be labeled in accordance with the provisions of this act."

This is the section, apparently, that is being violated, Henceroth believes.

Police who raided Spencer's home Tuesday evening found ten punts of whiskey bottled and two punts in earthenware pans, they reported. Charles Swartz, 518 S. Main-st., pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Judge Jackson on the same charge. He was placed under bond of $2,000 to appear for trial. Police found a half pint of liquor on his person, they said.

HONEYMOON IN AIRPLANE ENDS WITH CRASH WHEN AVIATOR GOES TO JAIL

ATLANTA, Ga.,—Will D. Philan, aviator, and his bride, soared to the seventh heaven of matrimonial bliss. Then crashed spinningly downword to hard reality and to a jail cell for Philan.

Philan, you see, married Miss Annie May Mails here. The ceremony was performed while the pair were seated in Philan's plane.

Then the propeller started whirling and off flew Philan and his bride for a honeymoon in Indiana. But, police say, Philan forgot one important fact when he got married—that he already was married to a girl in Lexington, Kentucky, and had neglected to divorce her.

Wells, news of the spectacular air wedding reached Lexington. Upon which the alleged wife No. 1 communicated with the father of the alleged wife No. 2 in Atlanta. Upon which papa complained to police who caused the flying lover's arrest at Evansville, Indiana.

The air bride has come back home to father. The woman who calls herself wife No. 1 is coming to Atlanta, too—to testify against Philan.

DELPHOS MAN IN NARROW ESCAPE

John Mueller's Horse Falls Under Interurban Car

John Mueller, E. Third-st. head of the Mueller Implement and Auto company, narrowly escaped injury Wednesday morning when he drove his horse and buggy into the path of an interurban car at the corner of Main and Second-sts, Delphos. Mueller, who is an invalid, uses the horse and buggy to carry him back and forth between his home and his place of business. He approached from the north on Main-st just as an east bound interurban car passed over the canal bridge. They both reached the intersection of the two streets at the same time.

The horse was partly over the tracks when Mueller saw the car. He pulled the horse's head back far enough to allow the front end of the car to pass, when the horse fell under the car, between the front and rear trucks. The car was brought to a stop before the wheels passed over the horse. The car, which is due in Delphos at 7:51 a. m., was delayed several minutes, while the animal was rescued from its perilous position.

The old horse is a familiar sight in Delphos, being taken to everybody as "Gale." Old residents say they can remember Gale hauling Mueller back and forth for the past 25 years.

HAND TRAINED TO REPLACE EAR

Words Spoken Thru Palm Recognized by Student

INTENDED AS AID TO DEAF

New Discovery Announced at Northwestern University

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)

The development of a hand to replace the ear as an organ for distinguishing sounds, has been carried by Professor Robert H. Gault, of Northwestern University, to the point where university authorities have announced that he has discovered a new field, which may lead to direct help for the deaf.

Prof. Gault has been able to train John Crane, a student, who is not words, thru the palm of his hand. The vibrations of a voice, speaking thru a long tube, are made to impinge on Mr. Crane's palm, while the sound is shut off from his ears. Professor Gault is arranging to experiment with an acoustician in the hand of a stone deaf person, with the speaker a long distance away. He says of these experiments:

"I have concluded that John Crane when he correctly interprets words and sentences by means of the impressions received on the palm of his hand thru a long tube, does not hear these words or sentences. In the first place, his ears have been plugged either with cotton or putty or with both. His head is tightly bound with a thick bandage and a motor has been operated nearby. In the second place his brother George, who has done the speaking, has been distant thirty feet in another room. There are two intervening walls, and even if John were not muffled from sound, I doubt his ability to hear anything. None of us who stood at John's side could catch the words George spoke thru the tube. CONDUCTED BY NERVES

"My theory therefore is as follows: The sound vibrations are conducted by the nerves from the delicate area in the hand to the general association areas of the brain, and there are directly transmitted to the mind. John does not hear the words or the phrases in the accepted sense of the term. It is true that when he is learning a new word he says he thinks he hears it when it is repeated, but when this word impression has been indelibly made, John admits that all thoughts of hearing leave him as quickly as the vibrations strike his hand, he repeats the word automatically."

Professor Gault is working out a definite process and theory which he hopes to prove of practical use. He thinks it will not be difficult to perfect an instrument that will be easily portable and of use for the deaf. Commenting on the experience of Willetta Higgins, a deaf girl of Janesville, Wisconsin who says she hears by means of an acousticon held in her hand Professor Gault says he is convinced he does not hear with the ear, but receives the vibrations in the general association areas of the brain. He adds:

"A tuning fork may be placed upon the head or the brow of a stone deaf person and its vibrations will be clearly detected. A person extremely deaf may go to a telephone and hear a conversation. These are demonstrated facts. It is so remotely possible that the sound actually reaches the auditory nerves in some of these instances that I am convinced that John Crane gets no help from his auditory nerves, when he pronounces words just spoken by his brother, and that Willetta Higgins does not hear at all, but receives the sound impressions by another route."

PALMOLIVE

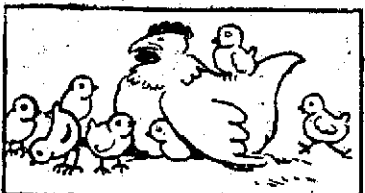

Chicken Fever Given Annual Impetus Here

Residences in Lima are being erected every day without building permits. Chicken coops are springing up these April days in the rear of many of Lima's best homes.

When the old Plymouth Rock Biddy suddenly decides to become a mother, there is nothing to do but to give her a dozen or 15 eggs to cherish. It's the only way the chicken yard can be made safe for the children.

So Mother buys a setting of eggs and Father is awarded the contract for the chicken coop. Within no time at all—provided Jimmy brought the hammer back just fall—the chicken housing situation is handled, and Father carries his thumb in a sling.

Seven out of the thirteen eggs develop little chickens with appetites. The old Plymouth struts with her head in the air and does her best to start a fight every time either Jimmy or Father invades the lot. She would snarl if she had teeth, but Jimmy or Father intends to buy her a set.

A near riot occurred over on S. Cole-st one evening this week. A Buff Orpington hen belonging to a certain Lima person who is concealing his name from the Humane Society, terminated a three weeks sitting on what the hen thought was probably a Buff Orpington egg. The egg, which was glass, of course developed into no chicken at all. The hen, enraged that not even a water glass should reward her long vigil, ran wildly about the lot looking for a revolver, so residents of the section declare.

Thousands of little Topsy chickens are going thru the Lima post-office, G. F. Winemiller, superintendent of the mails, declared. These chickens, hatched from an incubator and having not a parent to their names, travel from Lima hatching to points east. Each is equipped with a portfolio in the paper carton from which he or she can view the country.

Some prefer chickens who have known the influence of a mother. Others declare that along about July no one can tell whether the contents of the plate responded to the cluck of a hen or the purring of an incubator.

And no one seems to care.

RESTRICTING SALE OF ONE HAND GUNS

LEGISLATION has been ordered by the city commission which will place restrictions on the sale of one hand guns, the tools of bandits and murderers, and also will regulate the open display of these weapons. This is a step in the right direction and might be adopted by other cities to a good advantage.

One may see many displays of pistols in show windows about Lima at present, an open invitation to outlaws to obtain them by purchase or theft. As long as yeggs may get guns with ease, they will continue to kill with them for they carry them for no other purpose.

Arguments are advanced by some that too stringent regulation would bar peaceful and law abiding citizens from obtaining guns for the protection of their homes. This need not be the case granting that a gun is a protection in the home. We do not believe it is worth much for when an outlaw enters a house he knows the owners are not at home or is prepared to protect himself; in other words has the "drop" on his victims.

Regulations in Lima may be reasonable and still work to the disadvantage of criminals. We believe, however, that this matter should start with the state and be supplemented by local ordinances which would make it doubly effective. But in the absence of state laws, the most must be made of city restrictions on sales and display of weapons. The state now makes gun totting a penal offense, placing all responsibility on the totter and none on the man who sells the gun.

While Lima has little real crime when compared with great cities, we have had a number of concrete examples of crime in which one hand guns have figured. It is only reasonable to suppose that not all of these crimes would have been committed had it been more difficult for those involved to obtain their man killers.

The commission is to be complimented upon the action it is taking in this direction.

DONAHEY'S VETO PEN

OHIO'S governor isn't affixing his signature of approval to new laws enacted by the legislature without being well satisfied in his own mind that he should do so. Piled before him at the close of the session of the state law making body recently was a mass of upwards of 200 bills, dealing with most everything from tadpoles to elephants and from soup to nuts.

The governor didn't embark on a vacation when the legislature quit. Instead, he arranged to address himself uninterruptedly to the conglomeration of new laws carted into the executive office, for approval or disapproval. One of the weaknesses of Governor Donahey—it indeed it may be termed a weakness—is his insistency on knowing exactly what it's all about and how its provisions will act before he signs anything.

The outcome of this penchant by the chief executive has resulted in numerous measures being vetoed. Hidden away in neatly printed lines, obscured by cleverly woven phraseology, he often finds the cutest little jokers one could imagine. If allowed to stand, grave injustices would be worked on many persons. When he finds things of that sort, his pen is viciously jabbed into the ink well and the Donahey disapproval is written large on the dotted lines.

Thus far the governor has disapproved of exactly 16 measures enacted by the general assembly. In every case he has written an explanation of his reasons for veto, so that the general public may have the opportunity of agreeing or disagreeing with him. He also provides material for the proponents of the measure on which to base their attack should it be desired to stage an effort to have the lawmakers later pass the bills over the governor's head.

In the absence of an historical disclosure concerning the number of legislative measures vetoed by other executives, it may be that Governor Donahey is establishing a record along that line. In any event, he is throwing down the gauntlet to the legislature and is probably ready with reasons for his disapproval of measures, if they are desired.

FREE LAND DWINDLING

FIFTY years ago the public domain (land owned by the whole people, with title in the government) was 1161 million acres. Now it's only about 133 millions, and dwindling at a rate that will take the last acre in another 10 years.

"Free-land," the lure which built up America in its early days, will soon be a thing of the past. Goodby, youth of America. Our country is in its manhood, the a long time until it limps with a cane.

THE STORY OF LIFE

Chicago public high schools threaten to teach pupils about human life; the threat has aroused considerable discussion, with the majority of educators who know anything about life apparently not enthusiastic about the departure. There are precious few high school teachers who are competent to handle this subject. Maybe Chicago will train a corps of biologist especially for the work. It demands such training. Life—human life—is not taught in ordinary training schools or colleges for teachers. It isn't done, that's all.

In the course of our preparation for war, the United States' public health service began to issue free pamphlets regarding human life, reproduction, the hygiene of sex and the diseases which result from wrong sex living; these pamphlets are still obtainable thru your own state board of health or the United States Public Health Service, 16 Seventh street, S. W., Washington, D. C. The pamphlets are listed for these particular classes:

Pamphlet A.—For young men.
Pamphlet B.—For the general public.
Pamphlet C.—For boys.
Pamphlet D.—For parents.
Pamphlet E.—For girls and young women.
Pamphlet F.—For educators.
In writing for these pamphlets be sure to specify which one you want. Do not write to me about them. The one for educators at least helps teachers to realize how little they know about teaching sex hygiene or anything pertaining to sex life unless they have been trained for this specialty.

Now the U. S. P. H. is going into the subject further, trying to help parents with the formidable problem of instructing children about life. A special pamphlet has been issued, entitled "The Wonderful Story of Life;" it is along the lines of a mother's talks with her daughter regarding life and its reproduction.

I regret to say that the United States government charges five cents for this pamphlet; by sending five cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., anybody may obtain a copy or I suppose any number of copies desired at five cents per copy. I do not warrant this. I merely mention it.

This "Wonderful Story of Life" is pretty simple. I don't know whether it is too simple—it will be considered by some older folk but it is about as well told as the story can be told at present I think. It gives the parent at least an excellent outline to follow in the proper instruction of the child, the right grasp of the way to impart the sacred truth. It is a scandal, nothing less, that the United States government should demand a nickel half a dime for such literature.

BROTHERS ALL

We're brothers all, what's the place
By the shadows Gung on the garden wall,
Brothers whether in rags or lace,
By the good Lord's grace, we are brothers all,
Brothers all, by the good Lord's grace.

Some may sit in a royal hall,
Some may dwell where the rooms are small,
But under the skin we are brothers all.

Some may toil 'neath a burning sun,
Some may dream where the waters run,
But we're brothers all when the day is done.

Dreams of splendor and dreams of rest
Warm the proud and the poor man's breast;
What is best for God, for us all is best.

By the sun that shines and the rains that fall,

By the shadows Gung on the garden wall,
By the good Lord's grace, we are brothers all.

By the hurt that comes and the falling tear,
By the common grief at the silent bier,

And the grave that awaits, we are brothers here.

Keith Vaudeville Is Offering At Faurot

AFTER an absence of vaudeville for three days at the Faurot Opera house the management comes forth with a bill of unusual calibre for four days, beginning Sunday and continuing through Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. On Tuesday and Wednesday "Bringing Up Father," the masterpiece of laughter, mirth and music, based on the wonderfully witty and popular comedies by George McManus, will be the attraction.

As the initial act of the Keith bill, the Three Madcaps offer superior vaudeville entertainment in their terpsichorean exhibitions which they call "Dance Oddities." Songs in Italian, French, German, Hebrew and English will be the notable offering of Rose O'Hara. The linguist-songstress is an attractive girl with a beautiful voice. Her repertoire includes operatic, popular and character songs.

The most exuberantly funny act in vaudeville is "The Miserable of a Hansom Cab", in which the comedian, Al Fields, and his clever partner, Sheldon, take part. "Funnier than a Chaplin film," is the way one critic described the act. Eddie Black and his clever girl partner, Clair O'Donnell, offer one of the shining examples of what a vaudeville act should be. In a characterization of Mr. Black as a village nut, we have an epic in cleverer artistry.

Pat Ahern and Billy Peterson sing, dance and are merry in a new and a novel way in their clever skit, "The Boys from the Old Neighborhood," the fifth act of this meritorious bill.

The sixth and final act is presented by Caesar Rivoli, the greatest protean artist of this generation in the novelty "Scandal in a Restaurant," in which he plays a dozen different characters and does them so rapidly and with such sequence that you will think a dozen actors and actresses are being used in the cast.

"You and I" Is Week-End Offering at Orpheum

FOR the latter half of the week, Billy Allen has selected "You and I" from the pen of Wilton Parker, the well known musical comedy author, as the second offering in his repertoire of late musical comedies to be presented during his two week engagement at the Orpheum theatre. Parker has outdone every effort in this entertaining skit which will be presented for the initial time at the Thursday matinee. The "Four Pals," Virginia Lee, Louis Petel, Abe Sher, Johnnie O'Neil, Gertrude Lynch, J. Warren Lawlor and Rube Meyers will all be seen in new and novel specialties. Spectacular offerings and beautiful electrical and scenic equipment will feature the second presentation of Billy Allen and company in Lima.

The daughter, mother, and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1873 by Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for women's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy, to hold.—Adv.

Which Would You Choose?

Suppose, in a business venture, two courses were open to you—one of them fairly sure of success, the other almost sure of failure. You'd choose the right way—certainly!

Now, then, make it a question of health. Will you go to a physician for treatment and cooperate with him for your success in your quest of health?

Or do you think it wiser to listen to folks who know nothing about it, or take patent medicine labels as your guide?

The answer is plain enough. For our part we'd rather fill your physician's prescription than sell you the most profitable bottle of "cure-all" ever made.

MISS MARY KATHRYN ROBY was the honor guest at a luncheon of exquisite appointments at the Hotel Argonne, Wednesday, when Mrs. Clarence Klingner presided. The luncheon table, set in the private dining room, was most artistic; a mound of orchid sweet-peas and yellow roses (under which Miss Roby found her gift) was an attractive centerpiece, while strewn effectively over the table were tiny corsages of orchid sweet-peas, tied with yellow and orchid ribbons attached to the place-cards. White candles, with bows of chiffon in rainbow hues, were in crystal holders at either end of the table and the nut baskets were of yellow and pink, making the table lovely in its rainbow color scheme. Following the luncheon, the guests enjoyed an informal musicale at the Klingner home.

Guests of Mrs. Klingner included intimate musical friends of the honored one, who were: Mrs. Seward Folsom, Mrs. Fred Gooding, Mrs. John Cable, Mrs. Harley Holmes, Mrs. Henry Enck, Mrs. Peter Hulken, Mrs. John Roby, Mrs. John W. Roby Sr., Mrs. Carl Noville, Madam Marie Horst, Miss Violet Bradley, Miss Gertrude Boone, Miss Margaret Gregg, Miss Josephine Garretson, Miss Margaret McHaffey, Miss Nell Kriete, Miss Florence Price and Miss Martha and Miss Annette Roby.

Seven tables of bridge will be filled for play, Wednesday evening when Mrs. William Alligre, Lincoln-av., will entertain at her home, honoring Miss Mary K. Roby and Miss Margaret McHaffey, both bride-elects. Guests will be sorority sisters and other intimate friends of the honored guests.

Miss Cecilia Boyle, W. Market-st. will return to Lima on Thursday from Ashville, N. C. Miss Boyle has been in the south during the past several months.

Mrs. Josephine Smith, Lakewood-av., opened her home, Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Missionary society of Market Street Presbyterian church. Mrs. J. M. Greenstade, who, with this meeting began her duties as president, led in the devotionals. Mrs. E. L. Andrews had the only paper of the afternoon, having for her subject, "The Negro."

Tea was served following the program.

Mrs. D. M. McCormack, 220 N. Jackson-st., will entertain the members of the Alterotta club Thursday afternoon, at her home.

Mrs. M. A. Wagner gave a most interesting sketch and review of the "Life of Browning" at the meeting of the Delphi club, Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. William P. Deisel, Barbara Ann-aps. Mrs. Mark Koller gave a splendid account of "Browning's Poetry," reading several of his works. Tea was served following the program.

Mrs. Wallace H. King, Shawnee, will entertain the club at its next meeting in two weeks.

Mrs. Stanley Toy, 708 W. Market-st., will entertain members of the Bestyette club, Thursday afternoon, at her home.

Cotta Circle of Zion Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. William Gerstenlauer, 879 Bruce-av., Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hopper (Clara Leech) are in the city for a few days at the home of Mrs. Hopper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leech, N. Charles-st. They are enroute to their new home in Columbus.

Miss Margaret McHaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McHaffey, N. Charles-st., will give an organ recital next Tuesday evening, at the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Miss McHaffey graduated last year from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and has recently returned from Cincinnati where she has been taking post graduate work.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I AM a girl still in my teens, but have been out in business world quite a few years. Recently I took a job which pays only $10 a week. Now the question is, how much board do you think I ought to pay?
Out of that $10 I have to buy my lunches and clothing and pay my carfare. And I would like to save out a little for amusements. My dad earns pretty fair wages. He doesn't want me to pay more than $5 a week because I can't afford it. But my mother thinks I should pay $5. Last week I gave her $1 and she was quite peeved because it was not more. What do you think about this — L. M.

I THINK that unless your parents are in rather desperate financial straits that $2 or at most, $4, is as much as you should be required to pay for the two meals daily which you eat at home. I do not see how you could clothe yourself suitably, and pay for lunches and carfare on $5 a week, to say nothing of amusement, which is a necessary item in a girl's budget.

It is understood, of course, that when you pay your mother so little money you will help her as much as possible with the work, or at any rate will not make her any additional work on your account.

Dear Miss Smart:
I am a girl 15 years of age and have been going with a young man four years older than myself. We are engaged and he has asked me to marry him right away. My parents do not object. Would you advise me to marry him or wait until I am older? Also, how is my writing? — BLUE-EYED BOBBY

I think you are a little too young to be married or even engaged. Why not go around with boys and girls of your own age, your school friends? I would advise telling this young man you think you are too young to be married and that you would like to wait a few years. Do not let yourself down to just one friend among the boys.

TO JOY:
You need not apologize for the length of your letter. I enjoyed reading it and am very glad to receive it. You asked for my advice, didn't you? Return the ring. However, I would not other sending him his pictures, nor his letters. If you do not wish to keep them,

(I don't know why you should) burn them. Then, you will have nothing at all to remind you of your unpleasant experience with this California man.

Dear Miss Smart:
I am 20 years old and have been going with a man ten years my senior for six months. Lately he has been going with another woman. If I sued him for breach of promise do you think I would get any money? — RUBY

That would be a case for the courts to decide. However, it would be extremely bad taste for you to resort to such means, and you only would cheapen yourself by doing so.

You do not mention any engagement or even that you care for this man. Your interest in the matter seems wholly a mercenary one.

MOLASSES CANDY

1-2 cup water
1-2 cup sweet cream
2-4 cup corn sirup
1 cup best grade molasses
1-2 cup light brown sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
Mix well and after batch comes to a boil stir occasionally to keep from burning. Cook to the hard ball stage and remove from fire. Add pinch of salt and a pinch of soda, 1-2 cup butter and 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.
Mix well and cool on buttered slab or platter. When cool enough to handle, pull over hook until it is creamy and a light yellow color. Cut into small pieces and wrap in wax paper or place on buttered plate.
This candy is very good with peppermint flavor added, using 3-4 teaspoon of oil of peppermint, and omitting vanilla.

Facial Blemishes

Sallow, muddy, roughened or blotched complexions are usually due to constipation. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus secures regular bowel movements by Nature's own method—lubrication. Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. Try it today.

BIG JOBS GO BEGGING

Fame is not due, as we have been led to believe, to years of plodding toil, says Miss Rollin Wallingford, who has opened studios at the Hotel Argonne for personality development and vocational analysis.

A thousand years of labor could not have produced an Edison, a Ford, a Caruso, an Emerson or a Babe Ruth.

The reserved seat on the top ring of the ladder of success is procured only by him who has found his vocation. Men and women who are drawing from $10,000 to $50,000 a year are not super beings or not different from anyone else. But they have found the work that fitted their particular talents.

Vocational analysis, showing people wherein their particular talents lie is the solution. This can be told with certainty by the vocational analyst, for modern science has proved that these things are shown in the shape of the body, head, face and hands.

If you have not found your right work, consult Miss Wallingford at Hotel Argonne who gives free consultations for both adults and children.

"Cause and effect" is Nature's law

It controls life—science is based on it—no one can escape it.

Many people find that coffee and tea, both of which contain the drug, caffeine, are often a cause of nervousness, headache and loss of sleep.

There are many, too, who have found that the easy and sure way to avoid coffee and tea troubles is to drink delicious Postum as the meal-time beverage.

Try Postum in place of coffee or tea. It is pure, healthful and has a delightful full-bodied flavor.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 30 minutes.

WHISPERING SAGE

WHISPERING SAGE
Dick Acklin, big boss of the Double A ranch, picked up Buck Bodine, new owner of the old Webster place, to rob the Basque of Paradise Valley of their water supply. Jose Arracada, owner of the Basque, is father of Mercedes Esteban and little blind Basilio. Esteban is caught spying by Basilio Kildare of the Double A ranch. Esteban shoots Basilio in the arm. Bodine attends a Basque meeting as an uninvited guest.

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
"My rights have priority over all other water rights in this valley, excepting Acklin's!" Buck tried to drop this statement like a bombshell. He gazed about the room to watch its effect.

Jose shook his head judicially. "Again I say, the law will decide! If Acklin builds a fence on his own property to keep us out, that is his right. If we destroy it, or trespass on his land, and resort to our guns, then we are outside the law. We want to go into court with clean hands!"

"You bet," Tuscarora chimed in. "In a week we will find out where we're at. We all know Tom Brand. He's been on the square with us every time. I'll run down and see him."

The little man stopped short. His eyes angled out Bodine: "Now, suppose you beat it out of here, big fellow. The going may be rough if you wait until this meeting breaks up."

"Don't come back, either!" some one yelled.

Bodine's eyebrows flattened out. "I'll go," he muttered. "But not because any one here looks bad to me. I came to talk peace; but all I've heard is a lot of mouthing about the law."

He had reached the end of the veranda and was about to open the patio gate when he almost stumbled over Basilio.

Mercedes had found the boy awake when she had left the room where the meeting was held, so she had dressed him, and the two of them had wandered about in the moonlight.

She heard the child cry, and saw Bodine raise his foot and brush him off. In a second she was up with them, and took the little fellow into her arms.

Basilio ceased crying and Mercedes started him into the patio; but she stood her ground and laughed contemptuously at her enemy.

Bodine's cruel mouth held its diabolical grin as he got into his saddle. Once seated, he wheeled his horse on its hind legs and reaching down caught the surprised girl around the waist and lifted her beside him. She bit and scratched him, but he was too strong for her. Bending his head, he kissed her passionately, and she was left gasping, clutching her unprotected lips. Her finger nails ripped his face as he put her down.

CHAPTER XII

The Last Trail

Esteban's ignominious retreat enraged him to the heart. He stalked and fumed for a long time before he found the courage to face Romero and the casual Salvador. While he had been outside, venting his wrath on the desert night, they made plans of their own. Romero had passed the word to those apparently dissatisfied with the way the meeting was going to be at Cesar's place at midnight. They did not importune Esteban to join them. He felt the rebuff, and immediately resolved to go.

He had brought his reata to his room, and when he had opened his window he quickly noosed the rope over a bed-post and slid noiselessly to the ground.

It took him some time to reach Penny's house. "We have our guns with us. Cesar has tools enough to go round," Romero was saying as Esteban arrived. "We'll go up Rebel Creek as far as the wire. We can cut it before we are discovered. Once inside, you can hold off their men while some of us make short work of that bank. A stick of dynamite will blow it into Idaho! We won't wait for any law! Once we get the water turned where it belongs, Acklin and Bodine will never get it back. If you are willing to try it, raise your hands!"

One by one, the hands went up, until Romero waved his followers to their horses.

And as they moved through the velvet night, the man whom they hoped to catch off his guard sipped coffee with a dozen of his riders in the moonlight.

MOTHER, DAUGHTER BANQUET TO BE MADE ANNUAL EVENT BY BLUE TRIANGLE CLUBS

Two hundred girls and their mothers enjoyed the Mother and Daughter banquet at Trinity M. E. church Tuesday evening, given by the Blue Triangle club of South and Central High schools, under the direction of Miss Marguerite Creamer, Girl's Work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. This is the first Mother and Daughter banquet to be given by the club and according to Miss Creamer it has been planned to make it an annual affair.

Surrounding three long tables which formed a huge triangle in the center of the dining room were smaller tables, very attractive in their appointments of blue. Small triangular programs and nut baskets with bows of blue ribbon marked each place. Music was furnished throughout the dinner by the Central High school orchestra.

The theme for the program which followed the banquet was "The Friendly Road." Mrs. L. E. Ludwig, a mother from Central, gave a talk, "Our Companions on the Road," response, "Our Guiding Friends," was given by Dorothy Lawson, president of the Central club. Mrs. A. D. Welker, a mother from South gave a short talk, "Daughter o'Mine," while Cecile Valentine, president of the South club, responded with "Mother o'Mine." Miss Carrie Wilson, professor at Ohio Northern university and advisor of the Y. W. C. A. in Ada, delivered the principal address of the evening on "The Modern Girl and Ideal Womanhood."

Guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Townsend, Miss Carroll Wilson, Miss Ruth Seymour and mother; Mrs. A. N. Wisley, Mrs. Julia Simpson, Miss Grace Reynolds and Mother, Mrs. T. P. Pearson. Mrs. Harold Bowman, Mrs. Ira Longworth, Miss Helen Longworth and Miss Elizabeth Bronson.

Farmer's Wife Finds Astonishing Relief

"For ten long years I had suffered with my stomach. I tried everything without relief, but after one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy I knew I had obtained what I had been looking for and I took the full course of treatment. It is going on 4 years now and I have never had any pains or bloating since." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Hunter's 3 stores, and druggists everywhere. Adv.
